

Affirmative Action & Media Planning Assistance.

If you are a federal contractor or subcontractor looking for support in meeting your Affirmative Action plans and goals, we can help! JobTarget Media Services can assist you in reaching veterans and people with disabilities using our research tools and expertise in niche sites, identifying various media solutions, purchasing and managing media contracts, and more.

Our services are an extension of your OFCCP Compliance package and do not replace your compliance efforts. However, we can provide you with easy and thorough approaches to expand your applicant pool to include specific communities, as well as assist in the documentation and record-keeping process of your good faith efforts in recruitment.

Check out the step-by-step process:

Reach out to a JobTarget Media Strategist today for free assistance on your Affirmative Action Media Planning!

The JobTarget Media Services Team provides recruitment advertising consultation and media buying services to all JobTarget customers free of charge. Start working with Media Services today to assess and create a recruitment strategy in line with your budget, goals, and hiring needs.